

North Carolina Numismatic Association

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
7 March 2019

NCNA Confirms Location & Dates for 2019 Convention

The annual North Carolina Numismatic Association Convention and Show will return to the Cabarrus Arena & Convention Center, 4751 Highway 49 N in Concord, NC in October 2019.

The three-day Convention will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 4, 5 and 6. The show will open each day at 10:00am; closing time on Friday and Saturday will be 6:00pm, on Sunday it will be 3:00pm.

The 2018 bourse featured approximately 65 dealers occupying 100 tables. Bourse Chair Perry Siegel is hard at work for 2019 and already has several new dealers to offer even more variety for collectors.

The Convention will feature educational seminars on Saturday and host a variety of educational exhibits throughout the weekend.

The well-received and attended “Kids Connection” area for young collectors and their parents will return in 2019 with a host of fun and educational activities for those 17 and younger. Bob Pedolsky, the newly appointed Young Collectors Coordinator, will be introducing many new ideas which have been proven successful in his same role with the Charlotte Coin Club.

The annual NCNA General Membership meeting will be held on Saturday at 8:30am. Further details regarding the Convention will be released as they become available.

###

The North Carolina Numismatic Association (NCNA) was formed in 1959 to bring together individuals, clubs and similar organizations that share a common interest in the collecting and study of coins, currency and related items (e.g., medals, tokens, etc.). The mission of the NCNA is to educate collectors and the general public about numismatics.